

DEMOCRATIC CLUB TO DO EFFECTIVE WORK IN FUTURE

Committee of Three in Each Precinct Will Be Named to Boost Organization.

TO CIRCULATE PETITIONS

As Soon as Moline Members of Executive Board are Selected Big Meeting Is Planned.

How to reach every democrat in Rock Island county and get him interested in the activities of the Rock Island County Democratic club, was thoroughly discussed at a called meeting of the organization last evening at Turner hall. It was finally decided that a committee of three be named in each precinct by the president, to undertake the work of circulating membership petitions.

J. V. Cavanaugh, president of the club, presided, and in the absence of the secretary, A. C. Edwards, was named to act in that capacity. The meeting was called, primarily, for the purpose of ascertaining the names of the Moline members of the executive committee. The personnel of the committee was determined some weeks ago with the exception of those from Moline. The organization of the club has been retarded through their lack of interest. Some of the club favored the completion of the committee without waiting further on the neighboring city, but other deemed it expedient to give the dilatory ones another opportunity to assist. J. M. McBride and William Pierce of Moline, agreed to take the matter up at once and as soon as the committee members are named, another meeting of the club will be called.

T. A. Bender brought up the matter of securing new members and getting a line on the democrats of the county and made a motion, which carried, that the chairman select a committee of three in each precinct to carry on this work. The chairman and secretary were authorized to have membership petitions printed.

M. H. Sexton urged that the club have its organization perfected by August 1, in order to assist in the fall campaign.

Wanted Stenographer.

It was urged by Cornelius Donovan that a stenographer be employed to go over the primary poll books at the court house and secure the names of democrats, but Mr. Cavanaugh made the point that this list would be far from complete because of the failure of members of the party to vote at a primary.

Albert Huber, State's Attorney F. E. Thompson, George P. Stauduhar and C. J. Smith were also called on for remarks, concerning the best method to follow in making the club effective.

George M. Lukens, South Rock Island, asked if women were admitted to the club or if they were barred pending the ruling of the supreme court on the constitutionality of the suffrage measure. Mr. Cavanaugh said that women had been invited to attend the other meetings of the club but had not been formally asked to join the organization.

HAVING SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC AT JOY

Joy, the bustling Mercer county village, is having a smallpox scare. The disease broke out in the family of a minister who has seven children, and who came and went while other members of the family were ill. A school teacher who boarded at the home also kept on with her duties, and thus nearly every family in the place was exposed. Not until the spread among the other families began was the nature of the trouble properly diagnosed, and now it seems too late to do anything but nurse the sick, further preventive measures being obviously useless.

BIG CROWD SEES MILLER CARNIVAL

Twenty Attractions and Free Fireworks Exhibition Please the First Nighters.

A large crowd witnessed the opening of the A. B. Miller shows at Exposition park last night. Representations were more than fulfilled, and the impression made assures the company a prosperous engagement here. The shows will remain at the park for the entire week. There are 20 separate attractions, embracing the usual novelties to be seen with a carnival company.

The fireworks display, "The Eruption of Mt. Kitamara," was presented last night. Spot lights were trained on the scenery, and while the Waters concert band played, a ballet of well trained young women danced and drilled, affording a pretty spectacle. J. W. Johnson, fireworks expert, has charge of the eruption. He says:

"To present this display and present it right it requires a considerable expenditure of money. Think of a mountain of fame, death-dealing ashes and smoke covering the entire face of an island; the sudden intonations of internal explosions, the cracking of the crater, and the stream of molten lava shooting and belching from the crater in smoke and ashes and fire; down the volcano is coursing streams of lava; the city is destroyed and the inhabitants buried beneath the debris. Such a presentation in fireworks requires a small army of skilled men, and much time must be spent in rehearsing the ballet."

This eruption will be given each night, free, weather permitting.

he would not run as candidate on the republican ticket and that if he became a candidate it would be on the progressive ticket.

"Not a word of truth in this," said the colonel. "I have not made a single declaration about the political situation in 1916. I haven't been asked if I would run for governor of New York. If asked I would say that I would not. As to the river, it is extraordinary to have put on the map a river as long as the Rhine, but there is no more doubt of its existence than there is of the existence of the Rhine."

Mr. Roosevelt was asked how he felt.
"I don't look like a sick man, do I?" was his rejoinder. "I have been very ill with jungle fever, but I'm all right now. I feel fine."

Slowly Recovering From Fever.
It was learned, however, from Mr. Cherry that the colonel still suffered from slight symptoms of fever. He had had a chill earlier in the day. Mr. Roosevelt confessed that he had lost 55 pounds, part of which he had regained. He had also been troubled by the bites of poisonous insects.

Mr. Malone asked him if he were bothered by the criticism made by the English explorer, Henry Savage Landor. Mr. Roosevelt laughed deprecatingly. Neither that nor other similar criticisms worried him a great deal, he said.

The colonel told friends and newspaper men who crowded around him that he would make only one address before sailing for Spain.

"I will give this," said Mr. Roosevelt, "before the National Geographic society. At that time I will answer any questions that any reputable person wishes to ask me about my trip. More than this I do not care to say now."

Brings Home Many Trophies.

In the baggage brought by the colonel were a number of alligator skins and other trophies, which no one but the customs house officers saw. The only exception which the colonel took to the procedure of these officers was their handling of a manuscript which lay on one of the trunks.

"Please don't touch that," warned the colonel. "I shouldn't want to be separated from that." He would not say what it contained.

As Mr. Roosevelt talked with the collector of the port and the newspaper men, his illness did not show either in his face or his manner.

Mr. Cherry said Mr. Miller reiterated the colonel's statement that there was not a particle of doubt about the existence of the disputed river. They said they had come across it 300 miles in the interior and no one had ever heard of it.

WELL KNOWN MINISTER PRAISES PLANT JUICE

KANSAS CITY PASTOR PERSONALLY TESTED PLANT JUICE WITH THE USUAL GOOD RESULTS.

The following testimonial is from the Rev. Chas. Atherton, who lives at 2549 North Eighteenth street, in Kansas City, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has spent many years of a long and useful life in the ministry. He was a member of the Centralia, Illinois, conference for nine years and of the Kansas Conference for 12 years. This is what he has to say about Plant Juice:

"I have suffered much with palpitation of the heart, was very nervous and my entire system seemed weakened. I was in this condition for five years and during that time I tried many remedies but got little relief. I heard of Plant Juice and concluded I would try it. It has greatly relieved me, the palpitation has ceased, my nervous system is much stronger and I have found it a great remedy for constipation with which I also suffered. I feel ten years younger since taking Plant Juice and am very glad to recommend it."

Plant Juice strengthens, cleanses and revitalizes the entire system. It clears the blood of poisons and impurities, puts the lazy, sluggish liver to work, regulates the bowels, strengthens the kidneys and tones up the digestive organs. It sharpens the appetite and promotes sound, restful sleep. For sale at the Ballard Drug & Dental Co., 106 West Second street, in Davenport; the New Harper House, pharmacy, in Rock Island; E. GO TO WESTERN CANADA NOW

The opportunity of securing free homesteads of 160 acres each, and the low priced lands of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, will soon have passed.

Canada offers a hearty welcome to the settler, to the man with a family looking for a home; to the farmer's son, to the renter, to all who wish to live under better conditions.

Canada's grain yield in 1913 is the talk of the world. Luxuriant Grasses give cheap fodder for large herds; cost of raising and fattening for market is a trifle.

The sum realized for Beef, Butter, Milk and Cheese will pay fifty per cent on the investment.
